Certificate of Completion of the Programme

Introduction to green production delivered to

Linda Andreucci

This certificate confirms the completion of the awareness programme Introduction to Green Production, developed by Ecoprod with the support of Eurimages. It may serve as proof of participation in sustainability training, including for the Ecoprod Label or other labels and certifications. For any questions regarding its validity, please contact the relevant organisations or the StepUP team at stepup@ecoprod.com. This document is not a professional certification issued by Ecoprod or any training organisation.

StepUP is a Eurimages initiative.
